ChinTechFest '06 draws to a close

Staff Reporter

KANNUR: The three-day national-level management and technical festival `ChinTechFest '06,' hosted by the Chinmaya Institute of Technology, concluded on the institute campus at Chala here on Saturday.

Addressing the participants, S. Deenadayalan, managing director, Center for Excellence in Organization, Chennai, said that customers across the world were more conscious about cost, quality and service than nationalistic feeling. The present employment scenario revealed a situation where organisations were downsizing not to reduce the number of employees but to enhance the productivity of the existing employees.

The finals of the events Best Manager, Technical Quiz and Brand Quest were conducted. The winners of the Application Development event are Sibu Thomas Mathew and Robin John, MACFAST, Thiruvalla. The first prize in the Best Manager event has gone to Sunil Babu V.K of Central College, Bangalore.

K.P. Kamaluddin, general manager, Western India Plywoods, was the chief guest at the valedictory function of the festival. Institute Principal Anurag Tyagi spoke at the function.
